

The Cinderella Creed

I claim my rightful place in the human family and will extend peace to all other sisters and brothers.

I will place no other gods before the god of All People.

I will honor myself as one of Universe's marvelous creations.

I will no longer tolerate the destruction of human life or property as solutions to conflict.

I will not sacrifice my, nor any of the world's children to wars or the effects of war.

I will be self-motivating, self-correcting, and self-acknowledging, to guarantee my freedom from tyranny.

I will act to protect myself, my sisters, and the world's children from physical and emotional abuse; religious and political subjugation; and educational and economic depravity.

I will honor others' freedom as long as their freedom ends where mine begins.

I will utilize my divine feminine gifts to alleviate suffering whenever and wherever I can.

I will honor and protect Earth, the planetary home and potential Paradise of my beloved human family.

I will share my knowledge with sisters of all ages, including the ways of honoring and protecting the feminine body, mind, and spirit.
